WBUMC DISCERNMENT PROCESS DEVOTIONAL 1

Do not be conformed to this world, but continuously be transformed by the renewing of your minds so that you may be able to determine what God's will is—what is proper, pleasing, and perfect. Romans 12:2

- White Bluff has now entered the Discernment Process, so we ALL need to use our heads, our hearts, and our time to discover, both individually and corporately, what we discern to be God's will for WBUMC.
- We certainly do NOT want to have a knee-jerk reaction to the very complex issues of faith in practice that are before us! We each (in September) and as a congregation (in October) must use prayer, scripture study, the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and thoughtful exploration of personal beliefs to bring us to a knowledge of God's will.
- Of course, members of the congregation will be discussing many aspects related to this process we are undertaking in the weeks to come. Let NOT ONE OF US forget that we are all beloved children of God! Each one of us deserves to be heard without judgment; each one of us deserves to be loved by others despite any difference in beliefs. Please consider carefully how you might best share your ideas and listen to others' ideas within our congregation during the Discernment Process.
- Please pray daily that God will truly guide you as you participate in the decision-making process.
